

COL PERKINS - GIG GUIDE

July & August 2020

Date	Venue	show time	show
------	-------	-----------	------

N B. - many of my shows have been cancelled in recent days due to the COVID - 19 (Corona) virus which has hit many parts of the world

Luckily in Australia, we are staying safe by following the recommendations of our National health professionals and authorities importantly it is resulting in some of the world's best figures in controlling this unbelievably dangerous infection, we really are the envy of many nations throughout the world.

Like everyone, I am hoping that we can all remain safe & healthy, and together as a community we can control it and eventually find a cure to bring our world back to something we can call a "normal life" in the coming months

At present the following gigs still remain as bookings, and I am hoping they will eventuate so that I may be able perform my shows. However the situation is changing with every day, so I do suggest that you contact the venue closer to the performance dates to check if they will be open.
